MEDICINAL.

HANDICAPPED.

The man who started to run a race in chains and fetters would be visibly handicapped. No one would expect him to succeed. The man who runs the race of life with his digestive and nutritive organs diseased is equally handicapped. The man who runs the race of life with his digestive and nutritive organs diseased is equally handicapped. The man who runs the race of life with his digestive and nutritive organs diseased is equally handicapped.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When this is done food is perfectly digested and assimilated and the body receives strength in the only way in which strength can be given--by the nutrition derived from digested and assimilated food.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1244 Madison street, Huntington, Pa. "I was taken with what our physicians here said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out, and I did so and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped, being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good." Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE LATE PRESIDENT.

William McKinley, twenty-fifth President of the United States, was born at Niles, Trumbull county, Ohio, January 29, 1848. His ancestors were of Scotch-Irish descent, and came to this country about a century and a half ago.

William McKinley, father of the President, married in 1829, Nancy Campbell Allison, who was of English and Scotch-German descent. The President is the seventh of their nine children. Iron manufacturing and moulding was the trade of the elder McKinley and his father.

The father of the President lived to see his son Governor of Ohio, and his mother saw him President. She died December 12, 1897, at the age of eighty-eight.

He entered Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., in 1860. He became a clerk to the Poland postoffice, and held this position when the civil war broke out in 1861. On June 11, of that year, he enlisted as a private in Company E of the Twenty-third Ohio Volunteer Infantry and during the war attained the rank of Major.

Upon leaving the army he returned to his home in Poland and began the study of law. He settled in Canton, O., which has since been his home, and soon attracted attention as a lawyer of much ability.

In 1876 he was elected to Congress and was returned in 1878, 1880, 1882, 1884, 1886, and 1888. He was defeated in 1890.

While in Congress Mr. McKinley served on the committee on the revision of the laws, the judiciary committee, the committee on the expenditure of the Postoffice department, and the committee on rules, and when General Harrison was nominated for the presidency, Mr. McKinley was assigned to the committee on ways and means in his place, and he continued to serve on the last named committee until the end of his congressional career, being chairman of that committee during the Fifty-first Congress and author of the famous tariff bill which bore his name.

In 1891 he was elected governor of Ohio by a majority of 21,000 over ex-Governor James E. Campbell, democrat, and was re-elected in 1893. At the expiration of his term he returned to Canton.

He was nominated for President on the first ballot at the republican national convention at St. Louis in June, 1896, the vote being: McKinley, 691; Reed, 84; Quay, 61; Morton, 58; Allison, 39. In the November election following the total popular vote was 13,930,943, of which the McKinley electors received 7,104,779, being a plurality of 6,826,164 over those cast for William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, and a majority over all candidates of 311,742. The vote in the electoral college was 271 for McKinley and 176 for Bryan.

Mr. McKinley was re-nominated for the presidency by acclamation at the republican national convention held at Philadelphia June 23, 1900. The total popular vote in the election following was 13,970,900. Mr. McKinley received 7,206,677, as against 6,774,397 cast for William J. Bryan. His majority over all candidates in the popular vote was 343,054. The electoral vote for McKinley was 292, for Bryan 155.

The President was inaugurated for his second term on March 4 last with Vice President Roosevelt.

Major McKinley was married on January 25, 1871, to Miss Ida Saxton, of Canton, daughter of James A. and Catherine Dewalt Saxton. Two daughters were born to them, one in 1871 and one in 1873, but both died in early childhood.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Theodore Roosevelt was born in New York city, October 27, 1858. He comes of one of the oldest of the New York Dutch families. He is a son of Theodore Roosevelt who wedded Martha, daughter of James and Martha (Oswald) Bullock, of Roswell, Ga.

Mr. Roosevelt was graduated from Harvard in 1880, and later passed some time in European travel and Alpine climbing. On his return to America he began the study of law, but in 1881 was elected to the New York State Assembly, and re-elected in 1883, 1884, and 1885 from the Twenty-first Assembly district.

In 1886 Mr. Roosevelt ran for mayor of his city and polled a larger proportion of the total vote than was polled by any republican candidate until W. L. Strong was elected. Mr. Roosevelt accepted an independent nomination and was then endorsed by his own party. His opponents were Henry George, the labor candidate, and Abram S. Hewitt, the democratic candidate, who was elected by a plurality of about 22,000.

Mr. Roosevelt was appointed republican member of the United States Civil Service Commission in 1888 and occupied the position until 1895, being for part of that time the President of the Commission.

Mr. Roosevelt was appointed by Mayor Strong, of New York, in 1895 to the position of president of the board of police commissioners. He resigned as New York police commissioner to become Assistant Secretary of the Navy. After the outbreak of the Spanish American war, Mr. Roosevelt resigned his position in the Navy department and entered the volunteer army.

As a lieutenant colonel he organized the First Volunteer Cavalry, the regiment known as the "Rough Riders." The men were recruited largely from the cowboys of the far West and Southwest, but there were also many young college easterners and young men of social standing anxious to see service, who joined the regiment. Leonard Wood was first in command, but was succeeded by Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt, who was promoted to the colonelcy. The regiment served throughout the campaign, and was conspicuous in the charge on San Juan Hill in the fight of July 1.

Upon Colonel Roosevelt's return to New York he was nominated by the republicans of the State for Governor and was elected in November, 1898, defeating Judge Augustus Van Wyck.

Mr. Roosevelt was nominated for the Vice Presidency by acclamation at the republican national convention June 25, 1900, at Philadelphia, which nominated Mr. McKinley for President and was elected in November, 1900.

Mr. Roosevelt was married when a young man to Alice Lee, of Boston, who died two years after leaving a daughter. He was married in 1886 to Miss Edith Kermit Carow, and they have five children, three boys and two girls. His home, where all his children were born, is called Sagamore Hill, and is at Oyster Bay, Long Island.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of stimulants in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the most careful properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren st., N. Y.

North Silver, North Hartford, N. H.: "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when a fever with a rough cough told me I was incurable. One bottle relieved me, the second and third almost cured. Today I am a well man. For sale by R. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of suffering. "I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Holloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.
